NOTES:

- This is a sample program plan. This plan assumes that the student has completed the Entry Level Writing, American History and Institutions, Quantitative Reasoning, and Foreign Language requirements prior to admission. If the student has not, the student will need to include these courses in the program plan.
- Students are strongly advised to work with an academic adviser to determine a personal program plan and when best to apply to the major. Your program plan will differ depending on previous credit received, your course schedule, and available offerings.
- * Space is limited in Media Studies 10 in the fall. Students may take Media Studies N10 during the summer following their freshmen year. Students are advised to apply to the major during the first application period during the first semester they are eligible to apply. See Requirements and Applying on the Media Studies website.
- * Students considering the Media Studies major are advised to also work in the direction of an alternate major in case their application to Media Studies is denied. See Requirements and Applying on the Media Studies website.
