

Media Studies Major Requirements

- Prerequisites (4 courses)
 - Introduction to Media Studies
 - Media Studies 10 or W10
 - American Institutions
 - Political Science 1 or Political Science N1AC
 - Introduction to Social Sciences and Humanities
 - Anthropology 3AC, Comparative Literature 20A/8/C, Economics 1 or 2, Psychology 1 or 2, Rhetoric 10 or 20, Sociology 1 or 3AC, or Theater 26
 - Post-Civil War American History
 - History 7B, History 124A, History 124B, or History 131B
- Core Courses (4 courses)
 - Media Studies 111A, 111B, or 111C - Media Studies History
 - Media Studies 112 - Media Theories and Processes
 - Media Studies 113 - Media and Democracy
 - Media Studies 114 - Media and Globalization
- Concentration Electives (Take 3 courses from one concentration.)
 - Digital Studies Concentration
 - DS.1 - Research Methodologies
 - 1. _____
 - DS.2 - Virtual Communities and Social Media
 - 2. _____
 - DS.3 - Digital Projects and Digital Storytelling
 - 3. _____
 - Global Cultural Studies Concentration
 - GCS.1 - Research Methodologies
 - 1. _____
 - GCS.2 - Visual Culture
 - 2. _____
 - GCS.3 - Popular Culture
 - 3. _____
 - Media Law and Policy Concentration
 - MLP.1 - Research Methodologies
 - 1. _____
 - MLP.2 - Institutions
 - 2. _____
 - MLP.3 - Citizenship
 - 3. _____
- Additional Electives (2 courses)
 - Approved Upper Division Elective from any Concentration
 - 1. _____
 - Approved Upper Division Elective from any Concentration
 - 2. _____
- Other Requirements
 - Major requirements must be completed with a minimum of 28 upper-division units.

Media Studies Major Requirements

- No more than two upper-division courses from any one single outside department or program can be used, including combined and cross-listed courses. (Example: 3 upper-division Sociology courses cannot be used to fulfil major requirements.)
- All coursework for the major must be completed with a letter grade.