The L&S P/NP Late Action Deadline has been extended to 11:59 p.m. on Sunday, December 11, 2022. Students can submit a request to change their grade option from letter grade to P/NP only. This extended deadline and P/NP grade option does not apply to all courses and all students. There are also situations in which this change is not recommended.

This extended deadline was announced in a December 8th email sent to students from L&S Executive Chair Scott Saul and L&S Executive Dean Jennifer Johnson-Hanks.

Read carefully Fall 2022 Late Grading Option Change Modification on the L&S Office of Undergraduate Advising website before requesting this change for any course. The link to the request form is on the website.

Due to the ongoing strike, Media Studies will allow P grades for Media Studies course requirements taken at UC Berkeley in fall 2022 only.

While MEDIAST H194: Honors Thesis Preparation is not a required course for the major, we will allow P grades for it in fall 2022 only too.

The GPA requirements related to declaring, 3.2 or better in prerequisites and any course that applies to the major; graduating, GPA of 2.0 in the major and overall; and the Media Studies Honors Program, GPA of 3.5 in the major and overall, remain in place. Click here if you need a GPA calculator.
